

The Harvesters Quartet announces new tenor

The Harvesters Quartet is very excited to announce Tommy Young from Dunn, NC as their new tenor. Tommy comes to The Harvesters with several years of experience in the Southern Gospel Music industry. He started his singing career in 1973 and has been consistently singing since that time. Tommy, Danny Parker and Ivan Parker sang in a quartet in their early years, The Foundations from Pikeville, NC. Tommy most recently sang tenor for The Glorymen Quartet from Holly Springs, NC before joining The Harvesters Quartet. Danny states...”traveling and performing again with Tommy is like a family reunion. We enjoy reminiscing old times with each other and enjoy presenting the music we have both loved for many years, Gospel Music”.

Tommy joins The Harvesters filling the vacancy left by Phillip Hughes who joined The Anchormen Quartet as their lead singer. Danny Parker of The Harvesters states, “We are excited to have Tommy as a member of The Harvesters Quartet. He not only has a tremendous tenor voice but his walk with God is portrayed with his witness and testimony. We look forward to recording a new CD soon”.

Tommy is married to Dianne Young with an anniversary date of November 10, 1973. Together they raised 4 boys Paul, Daniel, Seth and Jordan. Their family suffered tragedy on December 23, 2005 when Paul (the oldest) was called home to be with the Lord. With the prayerful support of family, friends and God Tommy was able to continue God’s work through Gospel Music. Daniel is working on a career in the Information Technology field. Seth is married to Jamie Dowell and lives in Mt Airy, NC. Seth and Jamie manage Snappy Lunch. Jordan lives in Keansburg, NJ and is married to Leslie Brett. Jordan and Leslie have one daughter, Clare Jordyn Young. Tommy and Diane are enjoying spoiling their granddaughter Clare, their first grandchild.

Please join The Harvesters in welcoming Tommy and his family to The Harvesters Quartet. We invite you to come join The Harvesters Quartet for this new season of music and ministry.
